1. Theme Housing: Several floors offer programming opportunities and initiatives that will provide academic and social support catering to specific interests. You can elect to live in the First Year Experience Learning Community, Community Service Living Area or the Health and Natural Sciences Learning Community. Living spaces not specific to major or interest area are also available.

2. Housing Preferences:

   East
   Offers single rooms and a limited number of singles equipped with private bathrooms. The East section features individually controlled heating/air conditioning units, tiled floors and built-in furniture. The East section has open lounge spaces for recreation and study.

   West
   Offers single and double rooms and a limited number of large singles, triples (with private bathrooms), and quads (with private bathrooms). The West section features individually controlled heating/air conditioning units, tiled floors and furniture that can be rearranged. The West section has open lounge spaces for recreation and study.

   Center
   Offers two-person suites and a limited number of three-person and four-person suites. The Center section features individually controlled heating/air conditioning units, two bedrooms, a common space, a private bathroom and furniture that can be arranged in different ways. The Center section has open lounge spaces for recreation and study.

   Southeast
   Offers double and large single rooms. The Southeast section features individually controlled heating/air conditioning units, tiled floors and furniture that can be arranged in different ways. The Southeast section has open lounge spaces for recreation and study.

   Definitions:
   - Single – a room designed and furnished for one person.
   - Double – a room designed and furnished for two people.
   - Large Single – a double room specifically assigned to one person.
   - Suite – multiple room design for two, three or four people. NOTE: the number of available three-person and four-person suites is limited.

   Please Note: Room assignments are based on availability of rooms. Every attempt is made to house students in their preferred room type.

   If you feel you have a disability, please contact the Director of the Learning Center and Disability Services at 513-244-4524 for more information on disability-related housing accommodations.

3. Roommate Preference: If you know someone you would like as a roommate, please provide his/her name. He/She MUST also put your name on his/her application to match you as roommates.

4. Meal Plan: You are required to have one of the three meal plans as a resident student.

5. Smoking/Tobacco: All campus facilities are tobacco-free, but sometimes just the odor of smoke on personal items can be a problem. We try to match individuals based on this information.

6. Late Hours: If you stay up late, but your roommate doesn’t, it may cause undue tension in the room. We try to match individuals based on this information.

7. Sports: Please list the Mount athletic team(s) for which you will be playing. This information is helpful when matching roommates.

8. Music: Music preferences are a very good indicator of roommate compatibility.

9. Tidiness: Preference regarding the tidiness of one’s room is often a very good indicator of roommate compatibility.

10. Personality Traits: Please mark all traits that apply to YOU.

11. International Student: We do occasionally have some students from other countries who live on campus. Please indicate if you would like the opportunity to live with an international student.

12. Emergency Notification: Please fill out this information completely in case we ever need to contact someone for you.

13. Physical Conditions: Please fill out this information if you have a physical condition requiring a special room assignment.

14. Signature: Don’t forget to sign and date your application!

Housing Application | 2015-2016

SUBMIT ONLINE | Please print all information. | See instructions on first page

PLEASE NOTE: University policy states that all single, full-time, undergraduate students under the age of 21 or having fewer than 59 credit hours completed prior to the first day of class of any given semester, are required to live on campus and participate in a meal program offered by the University. Exception is made for students residing with their parents/legal guardian in the parents'/legal guardian’s principal residence within a 35-mile driving distance of the University campus. Students living off-campus who fail to meet either of these requirements will be assessed the lowest room and board rates for that semester.

*NOTE: Incomplete forms will not be processed and may result in your being charged room and board fees.
