The Catherine Relihan Scholarship is awarded to one eligible student from each cohort who enters the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN - MAGELIN) program.

The scholarship is up to $4,000 to be distributed over the 4 semesters of the program. Catherine Relihan graduated from College of Mount St. Joseph in 1956 with her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. She had a rich career practicing medical-surgical, obstetric and gerontology nursing in her home state of West Virginia before continuing her education in graduate nursing. Catherine ended her career as coordinator of practical nursing education for her local school system. Her passion was to assist adults in entering the nursing profession. Read more about Catherine Relihan online at www.msj.edu/donors.

To be eligible for the Catherine Relihan Scholarship, candidates must:

- be admitted to the MSN - MAGELIN program
- have an admission cumulative GPA or pre-requisite GPA of at least 3.4/4.0
- submit an application
- submit an essay describing your aspirations for personal and professional development in the program

If chosen, candidates will be invited to be interviewed by a selection committee.
