OHIO TEACHER LEADER ENDORSEMENT ONLINE

The Teacher Leader Endorsement is available to those who have an existing teaching license, four years of teaching experience, and are in process toward a master degree. The endorsement enables teachers to extend their professional opportunities in the field of education while remaining in the classroom. Offered online and completed in nine credit hours, the Mount's Teacher Leader Endorsement enables real-time integration of learning and professional work. Students in this program are able to immediately apply the course concepts in their school settings. The endorsement is grounded in the science of learning, respect and concern for all, with a focus on teacher leadership as a way to serve the school community in its efforts to improve outcomes for K-12 students.
