

LIBERAL ARTS

The Liberal Arts major is an experience that challenges students to explore intellectual interests and talents with the support of community on campus and beyond. Faculty guide students as they mature into confident writers, speakers, and life-long learners prepared to embrace the diverse opportunities of 21st-century life, work, and service. "My time in the liberal arts here at the Mount has helped to form me into the best person I can be," says Keegan Brown '25. "The classes give you an amazing skill set that prepares you for just about anything life throws at you! The professors will do everything they can to help you."

$1,000

WRITER'S BLOCK & THEATER ARTS AWARDS

The Mount offers $1,000 in awards to students who participate in Writer's Block or Theatre Arts. Students may receive only one award, regardless of participation in multiple groups.

All scholarships are renewable for four years. For eligibility requirements, visit msj.edu/scholarships.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

Cooperative education or Service Learning opportunities enable students to gain professional experience and to work with diverse populations, broadening the scope of their classroom learning. Students can also participate in Lions-on-Line literary journal, our student newspaper Dateline, and our new student-run Creative Writing Club.

LIBERAL ARTS MAJOR CONCENTRATIONS

- English—Studying English is an act of discovery, creativity, empathy, and tradition.
- History—Through this major, students have the opportunity to widely explore the past.
- Philosophy—Coursework helps students tackle difficult but important questions, such as "What's the meaning of life?"
- Religious Studies—Students explore what it is to be human and how to build the common good by engaging with religious traditions.
- Theatre—This concentration emboldens creativity, awareness, and technical skills to implement artistic choices.
- Also available: Creative Writing minor
