Warrior Run: The Race for Life

College Challenge Scholarship Application

The Warrior Run College Challenge Scholarship is a one-time scholarship award granted to Mount St. Joseph University as the winner of the 2018 Warrior Run: The Race for Life College Challenge. This $1500 award is presented to a Mount St. Joseph University student who meets the eligibility requirements.

Eligibility:

- Open to Mount St. Joseph undergraduate or graduate student in good standing
- A student who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, and who has developed tools and coping skills to live the most productive life possible.

OR

- A student who has demonstrated, through their involvement on or off campus, a passion for mental health education and awareness

Application Process:

- Write and submit a 500-1000 word essay OR a 3-5 minute video that tells your story and demonstrates with specific examples and reasons how you have achieved success and how you plan to reduce the stigma of mental illness on campus or in your future endeavors.
- Submit application materials to the Wellness Center Director, Mount St. Joseph University, 5701 Delhi Road, Cincinnati, OH 45233 or email applications materials to Patsy.Schwaiger@msj.edu no later than January 31, 2018.
